

Musical evening in Rovinj

Friday, 09 August 2013.

---

Organized by the Serbian community of Rovinj and sponsored by the town of Rovinj, a concert of classical music was held at the Multimedia Centre, on 8 August 2013. The programme included songs written for soloists by Serbian and Croatian classical music composers, Neapolitan songs and renowned Italian opera arias, as well as celebrated Chopin's music pieces for the piano. A coup de piece of the evening was the performance of "Cocktail suite for piano, four hands", which, after its premiere in Belgrade, was performed for the first time in Croatia, in Rovinj. The audience listened to the young soprano Marija Gajic, professor and a member of the Opera Studio "Borislav Popovic" of the National Theatre in Belgrade, master of art Jovan Despotovic, professor and MA Nemanja Nikolic, the professor and members of the band "Walle", award-winning soloists and classical musicians.
